Howdy, moms!

A word from our past presidents

Howdy Moms! What a wonderful year we had! We can't believe that our time as your presidents is now over. We have truly enjoyed these last three years. We have met and worked with so many wonderful moms, enjoyed some great speakers, ate some great salads and desserts, laughed and cried together, and best of all, worked to make our sons' and daughters' time at A&M a good one. Thank you, too, for the kind words, the flowers, and the A&M charm you presented to us at our last meeting. We both will wear it with pride.

Thank you again for letting us serve you as presidents. We will remember all of you and the dedication and support that you have given us and the Round Rock Aggie Moms.

Sharon and Liza

A Howdy! from our new presidents

Howdy! Connie and I are looking forward to becoming your new co-presidents beginning in June. As you learn of students being accepted to Texas A&M, please invite their moms to join our club! Also, if you had a student graduate from A&M recently, you can still be in our club! You are always an Aggie Mom! We will again have a welcome Howdy Hullabaloo this summer for the new moms, probably in July. Watch your e-mail for the exact date because we want the existing members to join us as we welcome the new moms and students. We are still in need of a few officer positions for next year, so please contact Denise at dws81@austin.rr.com or Connie at ConnieWeeks@rrca-tx.org if you can help with things like planning programs, taking minutes, etc. We are very excited to serve you! Gig' em!

1912 Time Capsule Discovered A time capsule containing important remnants of early 20th century Texas A&M University history was discovered by workers renovating the YMCA building on campus. The capsule contained a 1911-1912 Annual Catalogue, a 1912 student handbook, an article on the groundbreaking of the YMCA building from The Battalion, pieces of a document that lists YMCA officers and YMCA bylaws, and a list of the class of 1914.

The capsule is currently on display at the Cushing Memorial Library and Archives.

Student & Campus Happenings

Aggie Sports! The No. 13 ranked Aggie Baseball Team Claims the Big 12 Title! Texas A&M beat Missouri to win the Big 12 Championship. The Aggies shared the Big 12 regular season crown with Texas. This is the third overall and second straight tournament championship for the Aggies, who also won the 2010 Big 12 Championship. Texas A&M will make its school-record fifth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances next weekend when the Aggies host the NCAA College Station Regional at Olsen Field.

The Men's Golf: NCAA Championship begins on May 31st in Stillwater, OK. The 2011 NCAA Division I Men's Golf Championships are scheduled for May 31-June 5 at Karsten Creek in Stillwater. The tournament features three rounds of stroke play, with the top eight teams advancing to match play to decide the national champion. The Aggies are the number 8 Seed in the tournament. They have won two national titles in the last three seasons.

For the first time in school history, the Texas A&M track and field program swept the Big 12 Outdoor Championship team titles. It's the first time a school has achieved the sweep at the outdoor conference meet since Texas in 2006! Track & Field: NCAA Championships are scheduled for June 8-11 in Des Moines, Iowa. The Texas A&M women are ranked No. 2 for the upcoming championships and the Aggie men are ranked No. 1! Live television coverage of the meet can be found on cable's CBS Sports Network on Friday, June 10 and on national network CBS, Saturday, June 11.
